

POLICY MEMORANDUM

No. III-48

Use of University Facilities for Political Activities

The following policy and guidelines are to be used with regard to scheduling campus facilities for political activities:

- Campus facilities may be scheduled for political activities that promote awareness and education as long as they are not disruptive of campus teaching and research activities.
- Recognized student organizations promoting political awareness and education on the campus may schedule facilities according to regular procedure. Activity approvals must be obtained before facility scheduling is confirmed.
- University staff, faculty, and administrators may host political activities associated with the awareness and education of campus constituents through the regular scheduling process. Declaration of facility usage intent must be included on/with the Reservation Form.
- Community organizations may schedule University facilities, when space is available, to promote political activities associated with the awareness and education of community and campus constituents. Regular scheduling procedures are to be followed, with appropriate cost assessed. Declaration of facility usage intent must be included on/with the Reservation Form.
- "The use of University facilities should not imply an endorsement of an individual, group or organization and the name of the University shall not be identified in any way with the aims, policies, programs, products, or opinions of any individual, group or organization which may meet in University buildings or on University grounds in accordance with these regulations". (Article 110.010, Section B4d., Board of Curators Collected Rules & Regulations).
