

Chancellor's Council Announcements November 2010

Student Affairs

Counseling, Disability Support, and Student Wellness

- Disability Support Services is in the process of contracting services for a sign language interpreter for a student who is deaf and beginning classes in SS 2011. Remote interpreting services via laptop internet are being researched as well.
- In response to requests, programs on Stress Management, Depression, and Personality Style and Leadership are scheduled for an academic class, residential life, and Chancellor's Leadership Academy.
- Nov 9, 6-7pm, Havener-Walnut: Laughter Yoga StressBusters Workshop introduces various coping strategies for stress by actively engaging participants via a hands-on approach.
- Nov 11, 10:30-11:45am, University Police Conference Room: S&T Alcohol Prevention Coalition Nov Meeting.
- Nov 11, 3-5pm: S&T Safe Space Workshop. The purpose of the Safe Space Workshop is for participants to gain a better understanding of the Gay, Lesbian, Bi-affectionate, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intersex, and Ally (GLBTIQ<sup>2</sup>A) community in order to create a safe and inclusive environment for everyone. All 20 spots are currently reserved. Workshops will be offered again in the Spring Semester. Departments, groups, or organizations may request a Safe Space Workshop at <http://lcprograms.mst.edu/culturalopportunities/safespace.html>.
- Nov 15, 8:30-10am, Dallas, TX: Association of Public or Land-grant Universities (APLU) Conference Presentation: Partnerships Serving Students and the Campus. Linda Major, Assistant to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, University of Nebraska-Lincoln; Joan Masters, Director, Missouri Partners in Prevention, University of Missouri-Columbia; Renee Getz Parks, Health Educator, and Debra Robinson, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Missouri University of Science & Technology; and Christine Jackson, Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance, University of Nebraska-Lincoln will examine different perspectives and contributions from Business Affairs and Student Affairs, as well as collaborative approaches to manage student drinking while taking into account the unique campus characteristics that define what is most effective at individual institutions.

Leadership and Cultural Programs

- Nov. 1, Native American Heritage Information Table in Havener Center will feature hand crafted items and information on Native American Culture*
- Nov. 3, Speak UP, Speak OUT will feature a discussion on the state of Native Americans in American today, 7 PM in Missouri Room.*
- Nov. 4, Join Author and Actor Joseph Marshall as he discusses Leadership Lessons of Crazy Horse: The Power of Four" at 6 PM in Leach Theater. A reception and book signing will immediately follow the presentation in the Lobby. Tickets are free, but required. Contact Jerri Arnold-Cook at arnoldcookj@mst.edu for more information. To reserve your ticket contact Leach Theater 9 AM to 4 PM Monday-Friday at (573)341-4219. Joseph Marshall's visit is co-sponsored by Leadership & Cultural Programs, Air Force ROTC, The Curator's Teaching Professor's Fund and the Vice Provost of Academic Affairs.*
- Nov. 8, Chancellor's Leadership Academy Applications are due by 4:30 PM to Norwood 304. Application information is available at cla.mst.edu.

- Nov. 9, the Adventures Abroad speakers will feature Engineers Without Borders, at 4 PM in Toomey 295.
- Nov. 11, Safe Space Training, 3PM to 5 PM in Carver Turner. This training is open to all students, faculty, and staff but limited to 20 individuals. For more information go to lcprograms@mst.edu or emailing minerleader@mst.edu. This training is provided through the collaborative efforts of Counseling, Disability, Support Services and Student Wellness, Residential Life, and Leadership & Cultural Programs.
- Nov. 11, “How Smart Are You? Trivia About Different Parts of the World”, 6 PM in Carver-Turner hosted by the Miner Mentors.
- Nov. 13, Winter Student Leadership Award Nominations are due to Jerri Arnold-Cook. Details will be forthcoming.
- Nov. 17, Speak UP, Speak Out will feature a discussion on the controversial questions regarding should the U.S. legalize drugs? Who is benefiting from the being illegal? Who would benefit if they were legal?
- Nov. 30, Adventures Abroad featuring speaker Ross Haselhorst on China: Getting to know 1.3 billion people, one at a time, 4 PM, Toomey 295.

**These events are being sponsored in honor of Native American Heritage Month*

Student Life

- Nov. 7, the India Association’s Diwali celebration, India’s traditional “Celebration of Lights”.
  - 4pm cultural show at Leach Theatre
  - 6:15pm Fireworks behind the Engineering Management Building
  - 6:30pm a delicious 9-course Indian dinner in St. Pat’s Ballroom of the Havener Center.
- Student Organization Nuts & Bolts Series:
  - Nov. 10, Recruitment and Networking for Organization Sustainability
  - Nov. 12, Preparing Your Organization for Transition

Undergraduate Studies

UGS Fall Newsletter On-Line

http://ugs.mst.edu/documents/Fall\_2010\_UGS\_Newsletter\_Final.pdf

Externship Program Applications for Spring Break, <http://ugs.mst.edu/externship.html>.

Student opportunities to gain leadership development experience in a corporate setting for 1-5 days during Spring Break 2011 (March 28-April 1). Corporate sponsors will provide students with a general introduction to the company and an overview of how their corporation practices the types of corporate responsibility and accountability described in the Global Sullivan Principles. This opportunity is targeted at students in their second year and beyond. The priority deadline is December 15, 2010.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

http://advising.mst.edu/conferenceseries/conf\_series.html

Guidelines for Dealing with Academic Dishonesty Cases November 8 from 12-1:30 pm Presented by: Barb Prewett, Student Affairs and Gayatri Bhatt, Office of Undergraduate Studies
Monday, November 8 Noon - 1:30pm in Havener Center - Missouri/Ozark room

Residential College Showcase

http://ugs.mst.edu/documents/Res\_College\_Showcase\_Flyer\_Nov\_2010.pdf

Check out student projects from the RC Learning Communities!

Wednesday, November 10 11am - 1:30pm in Havener Center – lower and upper atriums

Service Learning Symposium, <http://ugs.mst.edu/servicelearning.html>

Wednesday, November 17 10:30am - 2pm in Havener Center. Join us in making reflective service learning an integral part of the education and life experiences of Missouri S&T students. All Missouri S&T faculty, staff and students are welcome to attend. There is no cost, but registration is required and lunch is included. To register by Nov. 10, contact the Office of Undergraduate Studies at 573.341.7585 or email mhutton@mst.edu. Speakers include:

- ▶ Dr. Cynthia Cooper, Professor of Biology Truman State University "From Service Learning to Scholarship"
- ▶ Dr. Frances Montgomery, Curator Teaching Professor in Psychological Sciences Missouri S&T
- ▶ Dr. Kathy Northcutt, Associate Professor and Director of Technical Communication Programs Missouri S&T "Risks and Rewards of Service Learning at S&T"
- ▶ Dr. Julie Lochbaum, Associate Professor of Education Truman State University "Steps to Infusing Service Learning in Your Course"

CERTI, <http://certi.mst.edu>

The Curators' Teaching Summit 2010: Balancing Teaching and Research

<http://certi.mst.edu/events/curators.html>

Monday, November 15, Noon in Havener Center – St. Pat's Ballroom C

This session will highlight the campus perspective as panelists will include Bob Schwartz, vice provost for Academic Affairs; Kelvin Erickson, chair of the department chairs committee, and Steve Clark, former chair of the campus promotion and tenure review committee. Lunch will be served and reservations are required. Contact certi@mst.edu to reserve your spot.

University Advancement

KMST

1. Recent checks of demographics on the KMST website reveal that we have listeners in 47 states and 41 foreign countries. The state with the largest number of listeners in North Carolina with 222 and the country with the largest number of listeners is Japan. Sixty percent of the listeners coming to the KMST website have us "bookmarked" on their computer.
2. KMST has been awarded an "Efficiency Bonus Grant" for $20,475 from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting for our efforts in providing "Rural Listener Access" to cultural and informational programming.